
Personal Information Protection Act 2016 ("PIPA") Privacy Notice

The Garden Club of Bermuda ("GCB") may collect and use personal information for the purposes of member communication, maintaining the membership register, collection of dues, member access to the GCB website and for the organisation of functions and events. In addition, the GCB may collect and use personal information, including bank details for reimbursement purposes, and for the consideration of and making donations to other charitable organisations or individuals for educational benefit.

The GCB protects and keeps confidential all personal information relating to its members, guest speakers and vendors providing service to the GCB in compliance with PIPA, which comes into force on 1 January 2025. The release of any personal information is limited to the GCB officers and/or Executive Committee members for the purpose of organising or completing tasks, activities or events on behalf of the GCB. Personal information collected and retained by the GCB will not be disclosed for any other reasons. Such information will be held for the duration of the relationship with the GCB.
